Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections
Announces Scholarship Opportunity for Current College Students

Hillsborough County, FL - Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer invites college students to apply for a scholarship opportunity provided by the Florida State Association of Supervisors of Elections (FSASE). The FSASE is offering three $1,200 scholarships to eligible Florida residents currently enrolled or accepted as full-time students in a senior college or university in Florida.

Hillsborough County residents must apply through the Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Office. The office will review all applications and send one finalist to the FSASE Scholarship Committee for consideration. Some of the requirements include the following:

- Students must be registered to vote in Florida, and submit their applications to the county in which they're registered.
- Students must be majoring in political science, public or business administration, or journalism/mass communication.
- Students must have finished two years of junior college or undergraduate work and hold enough credits for enrollment as a junior.
- Students must have been a resident of Florida for two years before the current academic year in which the application is made.
- Students must be able to demonstrate financial need.

The application must be received in the office by March 29, 2018 at 5 p.m. Interested students can find applications and more detailed information about the scholarship requirements at VoteHillsborough.org or they can contact Angel Porter at (813) 276-2296 or aporter@hcsoc.org.

The FSASE Scholarship Committee will announce the scholarship recipients at the 2018 FSASE Summer Conference.
