Celebrating Independence Day Tomorrow with New U.S. Citizens

WHAT: U.S. Citizenship and Immigrations Services holds several naturalization ceremonies a week in Tampa, and the Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections office attends every one, helping our newest citizens register to vote. But tomorrow's ceremony promises to be special. It's one of more than 65 Independence-Day themed ceremonies hosted by USCIS this week and next.

A group of 125 soon-to-be-citizens will be welcomed by Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer at the start of the ceremony.

"Once everyone has taken their oath of citizenship, my staff members will help these new citizens register to vote. Voting is one of our most sacred freedoms, so this a terrific way for us to kick off the Fourth of July weekend," said Supervisor Craig Latimer.

WHERE: HCC Dale Mabry, 4001 West Tampa Bay Blvd., Tampa

WHEN: Friday, June 30 at 10 a.m.
