Behind-the-Scenes at Your Elections Office: An Open House on Tuesday, November 7

Hillsborough County, FL—Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer is holding an open house at the Elections Service Center so our community can try out equipment and learn about the work being done to prepare for the 2018 elections.

“Since Hillsborough County doesn’t have an election on November 7, we thought the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November would be a great day to hold an open house,” said Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer. “We’re getting a lot of calls from voters, community groups and potential poll workers who are already thinking about the 2018 election. This is an opportunity for them to come in and learn first-hand what we are doing to ensure safe and secure elections.”

Visitors can stop by the office anytime between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on November 7 to:

- tour the elections warehouse
- see the electronic poll books used to check-in voters
- vote a demo ballot and put it through a ballot scanner
- try out Florida’s new online option for voter registration and updates
- submit a Vote By Mail request
- sign up to be a poll worker
- meet Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer

Media are encouraged to share this information with their audiences and attend the event.
