Hillsborough County Early Voting Update

August 17, 2018. Hillsborough County, FL - Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer wants to remind Hillsborough County voters that they can vote this weekend in the Primary Election. The Early Voting period started on August 13 and will be open in Hillsborough County every day, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., through August 26.

Turnout continues to be strong, with well over 2,000 people voting each day. As of 5 p.m. tonight, more than 63,900 voters had voted by mail, and more than 11,670 voters had voted in person at one of Hillsborough County's 19 Early Voting locations.

During the 2014 Primary Election, just over 19,400 voters voted during 11 days of Early Voting, with 2,481 voting early on the busiest day.

For more specific information on turnout today and throughout Early Voting, please visit VoteHillsborough.org. Our unofficial turnout is updated by type, party, precinct, location, and date throughout the day.

Election Day – the last day to vote – is August 28.
