Hillsborough County Early Voting Update: Day 10

August 22, 2018. Hillsborough County, FL – Today was the 10th day of Early Voting in Hillsborough County and Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer reports that turnout before Election Day continues to be strong.

As of 5 p.m. tonight, more than 77,300 voters had voted by mail, and more than 23,000 voters had voted in person at one of Hillsborough County's 19 Early Voting locations. That's getting close to the total number of voters who voted in the 2014 Primary Election, which was just over 128,000, including Election Day voters.

Hillsborough County's Early Voting started on August 13 and is open in Hillsborough County every day, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., through Sunday, August 26.

For more specific information on turnout today and throughout Early Voting, please visit VoteHillsborough.org. Our unofficial turnout is updated by type, party, precinct, location, and date throughout the day.

Election Day – the last day to vote – is August 28.
