Tampa City Council District 1 Manual Recount Set for 2 PM Today

March 8, 2019. Tampa, FL – Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer announces that the Canvassing Board for the City of Tampa Municipal Election will conduct a manual recount of the City Council District 1 race at 2 PM today at the Elections Service Center, 2514 N. Falkenburg Rd., Tampa.

State law mandates an automatic manual recount if a machine recount results in a margin of 0.25% or less.

During the manual recount, eight counting teams will review more than 7,000 ballots with “undervotes” (no votes in the race) or “overvotes” (more than one vote in the race). Representatives for each of the affected candidates may observe and issue challenges during the manual recount. Members of the public and the media can also observe.

Following the manual recount, the Canvassing Board will certify the official results of the election, which will be posted at VoteHillsborough.org.
