Turnout

Not even a week into early voting, 2020 turnout is currently ahead of the 2016 Presidential Preference Primary, with more than 97,000 votes already cast. In comparison, just under 53,000 voters had cast their ballot by this time in 2016. For more specific information on turnout today and throughout Early Voting, visit VoteHillsborough.org and look for the 2020 Presidential Preference Primary page. Unofficial turnout by voting method, party, precinct, location, and date is updated throughout the day.

Florida has closed primaries, so only Democrats and Republicans can vote in the Presidential Preference Primary Election.
